DO NOT KNOW.

Mayville, Nov. 19th, 1894. Ledger: Does The Bulletin mean by its Civil Service notice that we are not to have another Democratic President?

W. B. STURWOLD.

If our valued correspondent had asked us the population of the moon according to the last census;

Or if the isothermable could be utilized for a fishing-line;

Or whether the gentleman who assaulted William Patterson was a pupil or a Populist;

These we might have answered with some degree of certainty.

But what The Bulletin means, by its Civil Service utterance, or by anything else that it utters, is utterly unanswerable.

WE PASS.

STAIRS—GROVES.

A Romantic Wedding at the Bride's Home in Dover.

Editor Sam W. Stairs of The Searchlight.

And Mrs. Mary S. Groves were married last night at the home of the bride in Dover.

Mr. Stairs was born in Ohio forty-five years ago.

And his bride in the proud old commonwealth of Virginia seventy-four brilliant summers since.

It is the Editor's first venture on the matrimonial sea.

While his bride sees him one and goes him two better.

Almost every manufacturing establishment in Erie, Pa., is running at full force and hours, and many of them have extended their hours of work. A few are employing overtime.

And his bride's parents are in the same position. The business is good, and the work is steady.

Before the election Mrs. Lincoln argued that Republican success meant a restoration of confidence, the opening of American factories and workshops, the creation of new and better channels, a prolific and steady employment for American workmen, and an era of renewed prosperity all along the line. That the bonds held out by Mrs. Lincoln were not to be relied upon, however, was evident.

Below are a few evidences of the business revival that treads on the heel of the great Republican victory.—EURON.

There are reports of an increased volume of business by country merchants in the South, in spite of the low price of cotton.

The Oborne Glass Company at Pittsburg has resumed work in its green and amber bottle factories, giving employment to a small army of men and boys.

Almost every manufacturing establishment in Erie, Pa., is running at full force and hours, and many of them have extended their hours of work. A few are running overtime.

The glass works at Wallace, Baufeld & Co., at Homestead, O., which have been shut down for some time on account of the wage difficulty, has started up with a small force of new men.

The plant of the United States Iron and Tinplate Manufacturing Company, Denison, Pa., resumed operations a few days ago. This was the first establishment to start after the shut-down some time ago.

Ashland Sun: The industries of Ashland are beginning to feel an increase in business. The Ashland Steam Laundry had a larger business the past week than they have experienced since the institution was established. A better feeling prevails among the workmen of the East end of this city, and the starting up of Norton Furnace as Furnace No. 3 of the A. C. and J. will furnish employment to a great many who are both willing and able to work.

ALEXANDER, IND., Nov. 17th.—The Dye Pauw Plate Glass Works is now running at full capacity. The warehouse is filling up rapidly with stock, but it is expected that the most of it will be shipped during the holidays. The Lippincott will soon be running at full capacity, and are loaded with orders. The United Window Glass Factory at Orestes now has 650 hands at work, and the output exceeds that of any former period since the plant was built.

COLONEL, Nov. 16th.—The following articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the Secretary of State by the Eastern Manufacturing Company, Cincinnati, capital stock $10,000. The Lippincott Manufacturing Company, Chardon, capital stock $6,000. The Jarecki Chemical Company, Sandusky, increase of capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000.

KOKOMO, IND., Nov. 17th.—The past ten days has injected renewed vigor in this industrial field. A leading manufacturer of this city has to say: "We are headed in the right direction now, and progress, however slow, is encouraging. We can see the ground on which we stand since the clouds of uncertainty have lifted and made way, and we are moving on with all kinds of energy of what is before us." The Diamond Plate Glass Company continues to put in new machinery and is strengthening and enlarging the capacity of the plant. They hope to soon have their full complement of men at work, 700 hands, and the same number at Elwood. At present about 1,000 men are employed at both factories.

AMERICA FOR AMERICA'S AMERICANS

MCKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Shefford; but in 1891 William L. Wilson was dined and dined in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

"Get in line," howled Br'er MARSH to the Democrats before the election. From what THE LEADER has heard, the able Editor's appeal was unheeded by some of his most particular acquaintances.

Our esteemed friend and fellow-pitcher of The Bulletin will shy his optics over THE LEDGER'S "Boom" column from day to day, to be may be able to find fresh evidence of the "revival of business," the causes of which are attributed directly to the results of the recent election.

NOTWITHSTANDING the fact that Sen. SHERRILL has repudiated the remarks attributed to him by a lying New York interviewer, The Bulletin continues to quote the forged paragraphs. This cannot be ascribed to the Editor's ignorance; it is the outpouring of partisan dishonesty.

A SPECIAL from Frankfort says that a paper there says that Hon. ROLLA K. HART says that he will beat SAM PUGH into Congress after all. It is stated that Judge PAYNTER will resign soon, and that Mr. HART will be nominated and elected for the short term. Well, well, well.

A STUDY of the election returns in the office of the Secretary of State is interesting. Take the Ninth Congressional District for instance. ROLLA HART received only 63 votes less than did CLEVELAND in the same district in 1892. But PUGH received nearly 6,000 votes more than HARRISON did in the same year. How do you explain it?—Frankfort Capital.

Very easily, GEORGE; there are a great many people this year, and most of them are Republicans!

If you spend a dollar at home it will return to you before many days, but if you spend it abroad it is forever lost to you and your country.—But County World.

That's it exactly; and yet The World and other Democratic papers hereabout continually urge American people to spend their money in England for the goods that English workmen make, in preference to spending it in America for goods that American workmen make. Verily, the inconsistency of the Free-trader passeth all understanding.

HON. ROLLA K. HART has been telling around Frankfort that there is a howling demand throughout Northeastern Kentucky for an extra session of the Legislature to provide for an amendment re-establishing the viva voce system of voting. Is this the hobby on which ROLLA expects to ride into Congress for Mr. PAYNTER's unexpired term? If so, THE LEDGER begs to assure him that he will lose Mason county by 500 majority. There are a few fools who always want to go backward, but the great mass of the people, irrespective of party, favor the new method. As The Covington Commonwealth very forcibly say: "The ballot is in Kentucky to stay. The last Commonwealth in the civilized world to abolish the viva voce system of voting she will not hastily return to it."

HILL'S MORTIFICATION.

New York Post.

Morton bears Hill by a nobility which will not vary much from 15,000. But to say that Hill is beaten by 15,000 is to give him a full measure of his defeat. There was lost against Hill the $100,000 (bonds which bore Wheeler's name for Governor. The votes against Hill, therefore, exceeded the total number of votes cast for him, on account of minor parties. Nothing even approaching this majority against a Democratic candidate was ever known in the state. Maynard was beaten last year by only 10,000, while the plurality against Hill comes near to being twice as great.

The Proposed Race Between the Naval Vessel Columbia

And the Teutonic or the Majestic or the Cunard Line.

The Navy Department Will Not Permit Warship Racing Under Any Condition—Secretary Meade Talks About the Cruisers and Merchant Ships.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The monopoly of existence in the navy, which was broken into the other day by the smashing of the Columbus on a coal barge, has been taken up again, and further enlarged at the recent meeting of the naval architects and engineers, in New York. Admiral Meade, in command of the North Atlantic station, reported that the Columbus, the Teutonic, in the Cunard line, had been ordered to follow the liner when she starts for Europe and catch her to determine whether or not a cruiser can be ordered ordinary service conditions after having made a record on a trial trip said to be in excess of the speed of any merchantman afloat.

The prospect of such a race produced the most intense interest, not only in the Columbus, but among all classes interested in the development of war vessels. It seems, however, that Admiral Meade's proposition has given the navy department in Washington such a shock that the speed record is to be broken, and the race declared off. Acting Secretary of the Navy, McAdoo, so discussing the subject Monday, said:

"The department knows nothing which would indicate that the Columbus is not the best ship in the world, and that she is to be beaten only by a Cruiser."

The present position that we have a sufficient number of such unprotected vessels as our Cruisers, pure and simple, which depend largely on their speed, is one believed in by many naval officers, and it is this which has led the present to build more cruisers of a commerce-destroying type. The whole world contains few Lancashires or Corinthians, and there are few vessels that could run a mile from either.

"There is no doubt entertained but that the Columbus is the best ship in the world, and that she is to be beaten only by a Cruiser."

The Columbus, the Teutonic and some of the fast liners leaving New York, and it is quite unlikely that under any circumstances would the department enter into any such arrangement.

CLEVELAND OVERRULED.

A New York Justice Sets Aside His Award.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Another reminiscence of Grover Cleveland as a law practitioner in this city is the action of James W. Martin against the elevated roads for damages to his property, and in which Justice Patterson, of the supreme court, Monday entered a judgment for the plaintiff. The action began in 1888.

After a long reference before Mr. Cleveland he rendered a decision that neither side accepted, and both appealed to the court of appeals. The court, in a general term, made allowance and then the case proceeded to the court of appeals on the appeal of the roads. A reversal and new trial were ordered. There was no referee in the second trial, and the case was referred to the whole court. The fee was $2,000, and that the loss of the case was $150 a year.

Mr. Cleveland's total award is $3,200. The total award of Justice Patterson is $1,000. Justice Patterson had added extra allowances of $100 and costs to Saxon. Justice Patterson, who gives the present judgment in the case, appointed Mr. Cleveland referee in that case.
